IMPORTANT NOTIFICATION

AUTHORIZATION for RELEASE of CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

United States Federal Public law 93-380 (the Buckley Amendment) restricts access to personal information. Therefore, gathering, accessing or verifying information about an individual or that is part of a student's record is restricted by law.

IMPACT

- o Foreign nationals entering or living within the boundaries of the United States have an obligation to the U.S. government to provide information relative to him/her being in the United States. The U.S. federal government requires that universities collect particular information concerning foreign national students, and update that information on an on-going basis.
- o Any student accepting financial assistance or who is otherwise sponsored by any entity other than themselves provides that entity with a vested interest in his/her student status; and, in turn, provides the entity a right to and need for information concerning the student.

In order for the university to facilitate or otherwise cooperate in this effort, the student must provide the university legal right to do so.

By signing this completed "Admissions Application Form for International Students", you provide the university with your permission to communicate with entities with a right-to-know status concerning you.

SIGNATURE OF APPLICANT _____ DATE _____

- Please submit all application materials together as one package
- Application materials can be posted, faxed, or scanned and emailed.
- If faxing or emailing the application, original documents should be brought with the student and presented to international admissions staff before the student begins attending classes.
